National Commission on the Future of the Army to Hold Open Meeting in Killeen

The National Commission on the Future of the Army (NCFA) will hold an open meeting on July 9, 2015 from 3:00pm–5:00pm. The meeting will take place at the Marriott Courtyard in Killeen. The public is invited to attend, make oral comments, and/or provide written statements to the Commission. Anyone wanting to make a concise oral statement to the Commissioners can sign up at the venue prior to the meeting or by emailing Mr. Don Tison, the NCFA's Designated Federal Officer, at: dfo.public@ncfa.ncr.gov.

All speakers are asked to confine their remarks to addressing the criteria outlined below. Written comments will be accepted at any time, and members of the public can leave comments for the Commissioners at the meeting or via the NCFA website at: <http://www.ncfa.ncr.gov/publicComments.html>

Where: Marriott Courtyard Hotel
Grand Ballroom
1721 E. Central Texas Expressway
Killeen, TX 76541

When: July 9, 3:00 pm-5:00 pm

The NCFA has been charged by Congress to examine the structure of the Army and policy assumptions related to the size and force mix. The Commission has been tasked with making recommendations on modifications to the structure of the Army related based on current and anticipated mission requirements and acceptable levels of national risk, consistent with available and anticipated future resources. The Commission will also specifically examine the transfer of Army National Guard AH-64 Apache attack helicopters from the Army National Guard to the Regular Army. The Commission will issue its report no later than February 1, 2016.
